

Partnership Under Saddle

This is to introduce rider and horse to Cowboy Dressage – this is to show an understanding of the basic gaits and geometry while riding the horse with soft feel and harmony.

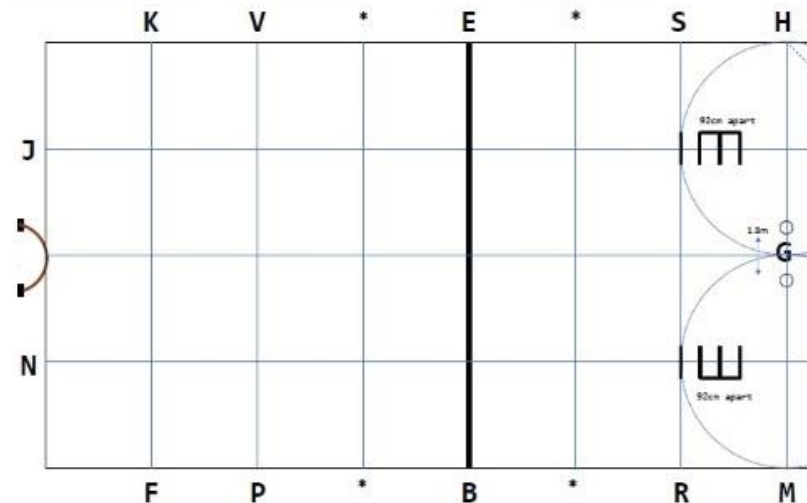

Half the arena is used, which is the entry level suggestion to riders.

Showmanship and poles to fall as part of the court. Often used to introduce the horse and rider to ridden classes

We suggest you view all tests before entering any

Cowboy Dressage Arena
Partnership on the Ground.

20m X 20m

elastic gutter poles, 1.5m long (5 ft).
plastic gutter poles, 0.80m long (3 ft), to keep 3 of the 4 poles connected (see between S & R). Connected with 2 T pieces and 4 90 degree elbows (poles 92 cm apart).
joints for octagon shape in the middle (45 degree elbows).

File name: \Cowboy_Dressage\Court\Cowboy_Dressage_1

